About SBA Albania

With a population of 3 million citizens and a GDP (PPP) of US$ 24 billion that is increasing yearly more than 5%, Albania is a small developing country located at the Western Balkans. Discussions for the asseccion of Albania to the European Union are in place.

SBA Albania is one of the pioneers of the freight forwarding industry in the country, having its operational and sales office at the economical and administrative capital city, Tirana. Albania's international airport "Nene Tereza" is located 20km from Tirana city center, while the main Albanian port of Dures is located 20 km further to the west, at the Adriatic Sea. SBA Albania has customs offices both at the airport and the port.
